

To You I send (O Moon!)

*To you I send all happiness
And all the shades of joy
To you I send all saviors
Who've lent themselves for soil*

*To you I send all love
And all the beautiful hearts
To you go the memorable times
And all the lonely calls*

*To you go all the nature's colors
And all the capturing smiles
To you I send all pain and cries
And all the motherly rhymes*

*I ask from you to bestow me
All the patience you have
Your calmness and strength I need a lot
To live this lonely path*

O moon! Why you look so beautiful?
